2025 ANNUAL CONFERENCE UPDATE

We're thrilled to announce preliminary details for this year's annual conference...

Location: University of Notre Dame
Theme: Fighting IR-ish!!!
Date: March 31 - April 1

This theme is a nod to the "Fighting Irish," the mascot of the host institution, Notre Dame, and it highlights the role of IR professionals as advocates ("fighters") for using data as a force for good.

The "Fighting IR-ish" theme underscores the important work IR professionals do to ensure that data is used ethically and effectively in shaping the future of higher education.

We strive to make a significant impact at our institutions by informing strategic decisions through insightful data analyses. And ultimately, the heart of our proposed theme is encouraging IR professionals to "fight" for positive change through our work with data!

The moderators and dates/times for these sessions are still being determined. Should you have any interest in helping to lead a discussion, please contact INAIR Secretary Jesse Talley at jtalley@iu.edu.
